Who Will Benefit from this Course?

Whether you are already a practicing hypnotist, from another professional discipline, or are looking for a career change, this course is for you. The Summit Performance Hypnosis Training Course is a basic to advanced hypnosis certification, which includes instruction on how to build and sustain a viable practice. You are:

- A practicing psychologist, MD, RN, CRNA, LPN, LMT, LCSW, LICSW, PA, complementary and alternative medicine practitioner, or other therapist who wants to add hypnosis to your practice
- A certified hypnotist who wants to learn new induction techniques and skills, or simply get re-certified
- Already certified through an online or distance training and want to have hands-on training with a practicing hypnotist
- A life coach or professional who is interested in building a full or part-time hypnosis practice
- A person who loves helping family and friends and would simply like to learn hypnosis to be more helpful

Get hands-on training from a true professional, Laura King, who has studied with top trainers and gone on to build a flourishing hypnosis practice, and business. Learn her techniques for combining hypnosis, NLP and life coaching to engage 100% of the clients' mind, and to build trust in the process of making lasting change. Learn Laura's proven methods for clinical application of hypnosis, including: weight loss, smoking cessation, stress management, working with children; and gain insight about how to work with cancer patients and survivors, preparing for surgery, pain management, and more.

You will leave with everything you need to start and/or build your hypnosis practice: Intake Forms, Release Forms, basic scripts to help people change bad habits, networking techniques, how to use public service as an avenue to increase your business, and so much more.
